U. S. NEWSPAPER LAWS.

Below is the law in regard to newspapers:

First—Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

Second—If the subscriber orders discontinuance of periodical the publisher may continue to send the same until arrears are paid.

Third—if a subscriber neglects or refuses to take the periodicals from the postoffice to which they have been directed he is held responsible till he has settled his bill and ordered the paper discontinued.

Fourth—if the subscriber moves to other places without informing the publisher and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

EDITORIALS.

What we need now is not so much advice as to how to die. We shall all die of stagnation unless we accept the best advice on how to live.

In these days of strenuous national anxiety with so many details of governmental policy to be worked out it is more and more apparent each day that the Republican party with its record for doing things is sadly needed at the front.

You ask, "Where do the gamblers get the big rolls of money?" Why, from the foolish laboring men who work all week, receive their pay and try to beat the game which the gamblers have been planning against them. The wives and children then become the losers.

The continued race riots in East St. Louis, while a disgrace no matter from what cause, may be due in part at least to the injudiciousness too common among a certain class of colored people who come up from the South with false ideals of social opportunities.

The man or woman who will not work should be the social outcast. Such persons can only live by dishonesty and dishonesty has no limitations, always including roguery, intemperance, adultery and home-breaking. These, not the color of the skin, are the standing menaces of our people.

The Sun is in receipt of a communication from Mrs. Alice Dugged Carey stating that Morris Brown college, Atlanta, Ga., was safe but that the Fair Haven hospital was burned down, also that she lost one house in the great fire which destroyed so much property there a few days ago, also that the colored people were treated well by the authorities.

EUGENE EDWARD VAUGHAN SEES BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR FUTURE NEGRO BUSINESS.

Success Demands Closer Attention and Larger Business Knowledge.

May 1, ultimo, marks the close of my sixth year in the real estate business in Greater Kansas City, and I take great pleasure in thanking both the urban and rural population for the support sustained me since 1911.

At that time I made a two-weeks preliminary canvass, for advertising purpose, that enabled me to sell $20,000 worth of property that year.

In the years that have followed, I have been gratified with the confidence placed in me, and have found that Negro business will grow more proportionately in the future as the Negro business man applies himself strictly to business, learns to be absolutely frank and honest in his opinions, and above all acquires a broader and more organized knowledge of business. The fact stands out that the business is to be had.

During my next fiscal year, I expect to do a bigger business in farms and suburban land, and to that end, am increasing my list of desirable properties. Remember that VAUGHAN'S VALUES are "worth investigating."

THEY SAY

—That it's an ill wind that blows nobody good. Selah.

—That for real success every man must be his own self-starter.

—That Commencement week will make some hearts sad and some glad.

—That the girl with bright eyes and striped hosiers always makes a fellow feel patriotic.

—That things are happening thick and fast in this old town every day now.

—That the man who wishes to preserve his health had better let "stewed chickens" and "pickled peaches" alone. Yee indeed, brother.

—That it would never do for some of those women with beautiful forms to be seen with their corsets off.

—That a good front doesn't always mean solid backing behind it.

—That some of these Kansas City women are quicker on the trigger than a professional bank robber. They'll kill you sure.

—That every school boy and girl now that school is over should be put to work industriously in the garden.

FREE—KANSAS FARMS.

The coming war brings no fear to the heart of colored people who have a piece of ground, no matter how small, from which to raise vegetables, chickens, a pig or two, and fruit to help them fight the high cost of living.

There is still time this Spring for folks to get out in the open and start a garden, and a whole lot of people will wish they had in the Fall.

I have several small farms, and a few tracts of five and six lots (about half an acre) in Riverside Park for sale. Terms as reasonable as one needs, and in some instances small houses are on the property.

Call up and make an engagement to see this land.

Also properties of all kinds for sale in both cities.

FIRST IN PEACE! FIRST IN WAR!

American Woodmen Now Paying Premiums for Members Who Go to War.

In the six months of work done in the city, the American Woodmen have issued fraternal insurance policies aggregating over $80,000. Its growth has been phenomenal in this city, and yet not so great as where its record for prompt payment of claims has been often remonstrated. In order to make a showing in keeping with the importance of our city, the local camp is entering upon a great log rolling contest for membership, awarding as prizes free railroad transportation to Denver, Colorado, in August, where the national assembly meeting will be held. It is also making most of the added interest this contest will arouse, by now establishing the children's department, known as

Tents. For information about either matter, call A. G. Nelson, clerk and deputy in charge. Bell phone, East 4139M, residence, 2631 Highland ave. Mrs. J. Abernathy, Worthy Guardian, or Mrs. Sadie Dimery, assistant. (Contest starts June 1 and concludes with the awarding of prizes July 20.)

The Denver trip, with its mountains, to say nothing of meeting men of national repute at the national gathering, will be a prize worth working for, and not only old members, but new ones who just now take their first steps in Woodcraft, will work with a will to win, especially as it is the fixed policy of Woodcraft to share with the members whatever initiation returns come from new memberships.

During this contest, the initiation fee will be $3.00, and policies are issued up to $2,000, paying also for sickness, total disability, old age, accident and burial.
